MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

I am pleased to welcome old friends to this the 26th Festival, and I note that some old faces return with new Clubs, and a top class entry. Also the numbers are up which is heartwarming after many long hours organising the event. It also gives the Manx Athletic Club the mandate to make the changes necessary to take the Festival into the '90s and beyond.

I also wish a speedy recovery to Norman Graves who has been Chief Timekeeper for this event for many a year, but will not be with us this year through ill health. It also gives me the opportunity to thank all those many volunteers who contribute to the success of this event, be they A.A. Officials, Police, Marshalls, Medical personnel, Local Authorities or Subsidiary Sponsors and the many more too numerous to mention. Also to you the athletes and spectators, a sincere thank you for your support.

I hope the weather stays fine and you all enjoy the atmosphere and sportsmanship of this weekend. Good luck.

GRAHAM DAVIES, Festival Director.
