CROASDALE'S FIRST WRIGHT'S FOURTH

MARK Croasdale of Bingley Harriers won the men's class of the Easter Athletics Festival for the first time with a string of third places, while Lucy Wright of Leeds University's DOSS took the women's prize for the fourth time, the third year in succession.

Top local performers were Graham Clarke, fourth overall in the men's, and Nicola Kennaugh in the women's.

The festival was blessed with just about ideal weather conditions throughout, resulting in some excellent racing from the healthy fields of runners.

The action started with a 5.3 mile road race round the houses in Douglas on Friday evening, won by 1996 champion Phil Mowbray of Hunter Bog Trotters in 25 minutes 50 seconds, who pipped Larry Matthews (Achilles A) by just one second at the TT Grandstand finish, after completing a full lap of Glencrutchery Road, Summerhill, Douglas promenade, Lord Street, Peel Road and Bray Hill.

Croasdale was third in 25.56, with Graham Clarke the leading local in seventh spot, followed by Chris Quine in 15th and Gianni Epifani five seconds in arrears in 16th.

Lucy Wright won the women's race in 30 mins 20 secs, some 15 seconds up on Crawley AC's Caroline Horne, with temporary local Jackie Ashman of Swindon Harriers a good third.

The first local proper was Pauline Kennaugh in 29th place.

But, out of serious training for several months due to injury, Phil Mowbray was not in a position to defend his title any further, the final sprint over Bray Hill having taken its toll, and he simply jogged round the Peel Hill course the following day.

Here, in what was one of the closest races for years, Leeds City's Greg Hull won by a margin of three seconds from Leeds Uni's Mick Hill, with Croasdale third again. Graham Clarke improved one place to sixth, as did Gianni Epifani to 14th. Andy Fox just crept into the top 20 in 19th place.

Jackie Ashman had a a slightly shorter course than that completed by the men. With Lucy Wright predictably notching up win number two, Jackie outsprinted Caroline Horne for second to gain revenge for a reverse result the previous evening.

The best genuine local result came from the below par Jane Mooney, still suffering from a heavy cold, in 19th spot out of a strong field of 55 women.

So to the Sunday, and the series of 5km road races based on the NSC and Groves Road/Peel Road areas.

The men's race, which doubled up as a relay, was won by Larry Matthews in 14.43 from Vincent Garner of Aldershot, Farnham and District (14.57), with that man Croasdale clinching the overall prize in a solid third place.

Graham Clarke improved further still to make doubly certain of the local prize, with Robbie Callister picking up the overall veteran men's award in 39th position overall, fifth local.

The relay race itself was won by Leeds City AC from Achilles A and Ballawin, with the Manx Harriers quartet of Graham and Paul Clarke, Gianni Epifani and Chris Quine forced to give up their 1996 title in fourth place.

Manx Harriers also slipped a place in the final men's team positions from second last year to third, behind Leeds City AC and Achilles A. 1996 champions, Hunters Bog Trotters, slumped to ninth.

The first veteran's team was Northern AC vets in 10th spot, Manx Harriers B taking the 'B team' award in sixth spot.

Lucy Wright completed her hat-trick of wins over the 1997 Easter period with a clear victory in Sunday's women's 5km race. The battle for the runner-up slot went all the way to the wire with Caroline Horne finally getting the better of Jackie Ashman in the final race.

Jane Mooney was 18th on Sunday, but with a non-score in the first event lost the best local woman's prize to fellow Manx Harrier and comparative novice, Nicola Kennaugh.

Lucy Wright (L01) leads Sarah Bradbury up the early part of Peel Hill in Saturday's second leg of the Easter Athletics Festival (JW)

Men's overall team points

The entry date has now passed, but the Lorraine Stigant will probably accept an entry if you are quick on 861984. Sport, has only attract Student Festival of Junction with the event, run in conjunction with the East Coast triathlon far for the Barclays this Saturday, April 5.

Parti' over four minutes clear in Good Friday walk

TEN local race walkers faced the starter at the TT Grandstand for last Friday evening's 'round-the-houses' walk, the traditional opening to the Easter Athletics Festival.

The race started ten minutes prior to the run and in fading light Steve Partington soon pulled away from the rest of the field. He held off the runners till the top of the Blackberry Lane climb, winning comfortably in a time of 38 minutes 42 seconds. This performance shows Steve's form is gradually returning though not yet back to the high standards he normally produces.

Second place was decided on the Summerhill/Blackberry Lane climb as Allan Callow put enough daylight between himself and Gordon Vale to hold on for the last kilometre along Glencrutchery Road to the finish.

Three minutes in arrears of Allan and Gordon were leading ladies Liz Corran and Karen Kneale who completed the course together - Liz being given the verdict on the line. Third place went to Bridget Kaneen who outpaced fourth man Dave Tasker on the Blackberry Lane hill. Ralph Martin, Brian Brough and Donna Davies completed the field and all the walkers managed to finish ahead of the back markers in the run.

● Thanks to all the timekeepers and officials and especially the marshals who did a fine job in difficult conditions.

Results: Men's race walk (all Manx Harriers) - 1, Steve Partington 38 minutes 42 seconds; 2, Allan Callow 42.18; 3, Gordon Vale 42.27; 4, Dave Tasker 52.21; 5, Ralph Martin 54.32; 6, Brian Brough 59.12. Ladies (all Manx Harriers) - 1, Elizabeth Corran 45.26; 2, Karen Kneale 45.26; 3, Bridget Kaneen 51.55; Donna Davies 58.14.

Athletics team named for Island Games

A 29-strong team of athletes and three officials has been named to represent the Isle of Man in the seventh biennial Island Games in Jersey this summer.

The backbone to the entire Manx team bid in Gibraltar two years ago, the 1997 athletics squad will, however, be without several of it's leading medal hopes in Jersey.

Sprint star Danaa Callow has taken a year out of competition, while the multi-talented Cheryl Done is being posted to the Falklands with the RAF.

Women's half marathon champion Karen Rushton is moving off the Island to live, and there's no place for top race walker Cal Partington, who was hoping to be considered for the 10,000 metres but has been hit by an ankle injury.

The squad named is as follows:

Gary Hunter, Dave Anderson, Chris Quine, Andy Fox, Paul Clarke, Graham Clarke, Bernard Cannan, David Teece, Gianni Epifani Kevin Wynne-Smythe, Ross Perriam, Glen Townsend, Gareth Leather, Trevor Christian, Neil Kelly and Alistair Mazzone.

Newcomers to the squad are: Gary Hunter, Trevor Christian, Neil Kelly, Alix Morrey, Gemma Green, Dave Mitchell, Bernard Cannan and David Teece.

The three team officials are manager, Di Shimell, assistant team manager Steve Kelly, and team official Joan Powell.
