The Isle of Man sits in the middle of the Irish Sea and boasts outstanding natural beauty and diversity of scenery. Every Easter the Island plays host to an athletic festival that offers runners something a little bit different.

During its 44 year history, the Isle of Man Easter Athletics Festival has built up a very good reputation attracting runners and clubs from up and down the country. The friendly nature of the event (not to mention the fine ales the Island proudly produces) attracts a wide range of athletes of all abilities and backgrounds.

Through the continued support from the Department of Tourism and Leisure, the festival offers generous cash prizes, to the extent that the leading athletes can run away with several hundred pounds.

The current festival organising team are committed to providing a memorable weekend for our visitors and have made some exciting new changes to the 2006 programme including a fantastic new 10K course in the South of the island for the Friday road race. Saturday's spectacular Peel Hill race remains unchanged and the Sunday 5K relay returns to the popular Douglas Promenade.

The Island is renowned for its hospitality and friendly residents, so when the running has finished you can sample the Islands many delights. There's plenty to do and visit - restaurants, parks, museums, or the £20m National Sport Centre. For those wanting to sample the local night life, Douglas enjoys some very lively bars and clubs, and if drinking beer is your chosen subject you will not be disappointed by the fine array of local ales.

The festival is brought to a close with a prize presentation which includes the fiercely contested beer drinking competition. Some competitors take this event more seriously than the running!

The Isle of Man Easter Athletics Festival has it all. We think that the dramatic scenery, fantastic people, and good racing will add up to a unique experience.
